Navigation on Lake Erie.

Navigation on Lake Erie.

Buffalo, Afril 11.—The propeller New England left here last-night, being the first boat out; and propellers Spaulding and Alleghany left this morning. It is supposed they have got through without trouble, as there is no ice in sight except a strip at the mouth of the harbor. In the event of difficulty, they would put into Gravelly Bay.

The forwarders and commission men of this city gave a public supper to largel T. Hatch last night, and presented him with a silver vase, in token of their appreciation of his course in the Legislature in 1852. The same men at that time denounced Hatch's position, and defeated him when up for re election.

Important from Mexico.

New Orleans, April 11.—The steamer Texas has arrived from Vera Cruz, with dates to the 11th ult.

Several skirmishes had taken place between the forces of Santa Anna and Alvarez, and a few of the latter had been killed. Alvarez threatened to kill the prisoners in his possession, if Santa Anna killed those he had taken. It was believed that the revolution would soon be enabled.

Administration Condemned.

ALBANY, APRIL 12.—The Democratic State Central Committee have adjourned, to meet again in July. Previous to their adjournment, resolutions were passed severely condemning the Administration for the policy it has pursued in all questions where national honor and national interest were at stake.

Baltimore, April 12.—The telegraph to Charleston is not in working condition. The latest letters say that either Ex-Governor Trousdale or Senator Jones, of Tennessee, will be President of the Southern Convention.

Charleston is full of strangers. Three hundred delegates are present, and they speak as if they were determined to accomplish something definite for the benefit of the trade.

TROY, N. Y., APRIL 12.—John W. Phelps, of this place, murdered his wife, last night, with a butcher-knife.

Adjournment of Legislature. ALBANY, APRIL 12.—The Legislature have agreed to adjourn sine die on Friday next.

Baltimore; April 12.—Flour remains firm; sales of 500 barrels of Howard Street at $7.50 a $7.75; sales of 600 barrels of City Mills at $7.50. DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

This great medicine has supplanted all others for the cure of diseases of the Liver. Its effects are so salutary and so speedy, and at the same time so perfectly safe, that it is not surprising that it should supersede all others. Invented by a very distinguished physician of Virginia, who practiced in a region of country in which Hepatis, or Liver Complaint, is peculiarly formidable and common, and who had spent years in discovering the ingredients and proportioning their quantities, these Pills are peculiarly adapted to every form of the disease, and never fail to alleviate the most obstinate cases of that terrible complaint. They have justly become celebrated; and the researches of Dr. McLane have placed his same among the henefactors of mankind. No one having symptoms of this formidable complaint, should be without these invaluable Pills. Have you a pain in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, which increases with pressure—unable to lie with ease on the left side—with occasional, sometimes constant, when the disease of the pressure unable to lie with ease on the left side—with occasional, sometimes constant, which can be had free of charge, apply to, or address.

PLES PATRNT OFFICE, 86 Nassau street, New York, with despatch, on very moderate terms.

Under the laws of the United States, Patents are granted for ornamental works and decorations of erry kind, such as the ornamental designs upon stoves, walls, ceilings, wood and metal carvings, busts, statuse, ceilings, wood and metal carvings are repecularly walls, ceilings, wood and metal carvings, busts, statuse, ceilings, wood and metal carvings, bus so salutary and so speedy, and at the same time so the left side—with occasional, sometimes constant, pain under the shoulder-blade, frequently extending to the top of the shoulder? Rely upon it, that although the latter pains are sometimes taken for rheumatic, they all arise from disease of the Liver; and if you would have relief, go instantly and buy a box of Dr. McLane's Liver Pills.

Der Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. Mc-LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, and take none else. There are other Pills, purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public.

Dr. McLane's Liver Pills also his celebrated Verugs, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada.

Se.WING MACHINE FOR SALE CHEAP.

WE have deposited with us, for sale, one of Avery's superior Sewing Machines, and are authorized to dispose of the same as a great bargain. This machine is considered one of the best now in use. We annex herewith the recommendation of some of the principal wholesale merchant tailors in New York city.

New York, July 30, 1853.

We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that we have examined the "Avery Sewing Machine," and cheerfully recommend it for its simplicity, durability, and es ocially for the peculiar stitch made by it. The stitch is original, and in appearance is like the most perfect and handsome "back-stitching." We have thoroughly tested the strength of the sewing, and are satisfied that the stitch of this machine makes a stronger and firmer seam than can be made by hand. We take pleasure in recommending this Machine te our friends, and to tailors, seamstresses, and families generally, throughout the country:

2 doors above Odd Fellows' Hall FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS, of every style, all of the best qualities, and for which we shall have one price only.

We shall sell cheaper than we ever have done; and in having one price only (which, in our opinion, is the only fair and equitable way of doing business) we shall maintain our self-respect, which is above all price or success. Moreover, we expect to retain all the trade of those prompt customers who have made their purchases of us for some years past, and doubtless we shall have a large accession of new customers, who prefer to buy where one fair price only is asked.

We feel that our simple word is requisite only to satisfy our former customers that the one price system is the correct one, and to their advantage; and we do not hesitate to assert our belief that all candid and intelligent persons will, after an impartial examination of prices, fabric, and styles, give a one price store the preference., Those who are not judges of goods cannot fail to be impressed at once with the manifold and vast advantages to the purchaser resulting from the adoption in good faith of the one price system; it necessarily insures low prices to the purchaser, for it becomes absolutely necessary to meet at the start all composition that can be offered in prices.

Our scale of prices will he so low and the profiles. RELIGIOUS BOOK DEPOSITORY

To those persons who may visit Washington, and are in want of a boot that cannot be excelled, either in quality or workmanship, we would call their attention to the card of Henry Janney, to be found under the head of "Washington." A handsome and neatly-made boot is not at all times a source of pleasure to the wearer, but often one of extreme torture; this is caused by the bungling manner in which the boot is fitted to the foot. Mr. Janney has devoted much of his time in studying the construction of the human foot, in order to ascertain how a boot should be cut and fitted, that will be perfectly easy to all parts of the foot. In this he has succeeded, so that it matters not what may be the shape of, or the number of corns on the foot, his boot is perfectly easy. Thus he has combined beauty with comfort. FARM NEAR WASHINGTON FOR SALE

FARM NEAR WASHINGTON FOR SALE.

THE subscribor offers for sale his Farm, situated about five miles from Washington, D.C., in Prince George's county, Md. It contains 1784 acres, more than 30 of which is a fine alluvial meadow, producing a ton and a half of hay to the acre, but which under improved cultivation would produce at least two tons. Hay sells in the Washington market at from $15 to $30 per ton. About four acres of the place is a marsh, covered with several feet in thickness of black earth, the result of decayed vegetation, which, properly composted, is a source from which the upland may be enriched at a reasonable cost. About 60 acres of the farm is woodland—growth principally oak and chestnut. The land, except the meadow, is undulating, and affords many beautiful sites for building. There are many springs of excellent water on the place, and it is noted for its healthfulness. The soil of the greater part of the upland is a sandy loam, underlaid by clay—in some places, clay predominating. About 75 acres could be divided into small gardening farms, giving nearly an equal quantity of wood and arable land to each. There is an orchard of 150 peach trees and 60 apple trees on the place, all bearing. The farm is well fenced. The buildings are—a log house of four rooms, with a frame addition of three rooms, a meat-house of sun-dried brick, a log kitchen separate from the dwelling, a corn-house, stable, carriage-house, &c. There is a stream of water running through the place, with sufficient water and fall for a small mill. Price, $50 per acre. Terms—one-third cash; a long credit for the residue, if desired; or, it would be exchanged for real estate in the city of Washington. Address

MARTIN BUELL,

Fifty acres, about half of which is woodland, and which could be divided into three gardening farms, with woodland and a beantiful building site to each, would be sold separately. Or, if preferred, I will sell the other part of the farm, on which are the buildings, orchard, and meadow, which cannot be conveniently d

BACON'S MERCANTILE COLLEGE,

Northwest corner of Sixth and Walnut streets,

Cincinnati, Ohio.

THE undersigned has removed his Mercantile College to his new building, northwest corner of Walnut and Sixth streets, where he has fitted up a splendid suite of rooms, expressly for his business—having spared neither pains nor expense in making them in every respect the most convenient and ploasant school rooms in the United States.

The plan adopted in teaching combines practice with theory; instead of using books, the pupils are exercised in making original entries of overy-day business transactions. Journalizing, posting, balancing accounts, opening and closing of a great variety of different sets of books, both for partnership and individual business, where the business has been prosperous and adverse; and thus qualifying the student for entering into the practical duties of the accountant, in any kind of business.

The course of instruction will consist of Double-entry Book-keeping, embracing every department of trade and mercantile accounts, vis: Wholesale, Retail, Commission, Exchange, Banking, Manufacturing, Shipping, Individual, Partnership, Steamboating, and Compound Co. Business. Commercial Calculations, Practical Penmanship, and Lectures on Commercial Law; also, Lectures on the Science of Accounts, Custom of Merchants, etc.

In addition to the regular course of study, the undersigned has made arrangements with Henry Snow, Esq. Hon. Bellamy Storer, Prof C. W. Wright, and counts, Custom of Merchants, etc.

In addition to the regular course of study, the undersigned has made arrangements with Henry Snow, Esq. Hon. Bellamy Storer, Prof C. W. Wright, and other eminent lecturers, to deliver a course of Lectures on the subjects of Commercial Law, History of Commerce, Political Economy as connected with commerce, and other subjects of great importance in a commercial point of view, and never before introduced in any Mercantile College in the United States. Pupils are instructed individually, and not in class es; so that students may enter at any time, and proceed in the ratio of their capacity and assiduity. Public examinations are had, (though pupils are examined privately, if they desire it, when the student undergors rigid an thorough interrogations by the Principal, (assisted by a committee of Practical Accountants and business men,) and Diplomas awarded to those who are deemed werthy of them.

A course can be completed in from six to ten weeks. The Principal will take pleasure in doing everything in his power to advance his students, and make them thorough and accomplished secontants; and his extensive acquaintance with the business community will generally can be him to procure situations for those desirous of obtaining them.

Terms: For a full course of lessons in Book-keeping, Writing, Commercial Calculations, Commercial Law, etc., $40.

From the Cincinnati Enquirer of March 12, 1853.

BACON'S MERCANTILE COLLEGE.—The examination of the students in Book-keeping exhibited a degree of proficiency on their part highly creditable to themselves and Mr. Bacon their instructor.

The most difficult problems in Double Entry were as rapidly solved as the most simple, giving ample proof to the audience that the informat on imparted during the session would be of practical benefit. From the Cincinnati Daily Gazette.

The writins complex questions proposed by the Principal and other gentlemen present were answered with great promptitude and conciseness, which reflects great credit upon the course of study pursued at this institution. From the Cincinnati Daily Times.

Mr. Bacon's school is in a flourishing condition, and the patronage extended it is a high compliment to the thorough mercantile education there imparted. From the Chillicothe Ancient Metropolis of May 8, 1853.

Mr Bacon is unrivalled as a teacher—a diploma from his College, in Cincinnati, is required as a sine qua non in obtaining situations in the best morean-tile houses in large cities From the Cincinnati Gazette, Nov. 8, 1853.

Mr. Bacon has constructed the upper portion of his building expressly for the purposes of his College, and, without any doubt, it is the most complete arrangement of the kind in the United States.

From the Cincinnati Enquirer.

It has been the purpose of the Trustees of this School, from the first, to make it both safe and inviting to Students; and we believe we may row safely recommend it, under the supervision and care of President Leonard G Calkins, whose ability for that responsible office has been most happily tested, assisted by a competent "Board of Instruction." Free from the unboly influence of larger towns, and pervaded by moral influences, republican habits, and Christian example, associated with manual labor, we think parents must feel a degree of security, begetten by no other set of circumstances.

One arrangement in this Institution, not to be overlooked in this day of "public speaking," is a Rhetorical Class, with daily exercises in extemporaneous speaking, under the eareful training of the Presider. The student of small means, aspiring to a thorough intellectual education by his own energies, will find in this College sympathy and aid in his arduous and noble work.

McGrawville, February, 1854. Ten Thousand Copies in Ten Days. Uncle Tom Eclipsed by the camplighter!

THE most extraordinary and Thrilling Tale of modern times. This is the universal testimony of the Newspaper Press, and the verdict of the Remi-ing Public. We have been utterly unable to fill our orders, so great has been the demand for this GREAT AMERICAN ROMANCE. The following are samples of the opinions of the Corps Editorial:

Corps Editorial:

We have no hesitation in pronouncing The Lamp lighter one of the most original, interesting, graphic, and affecting tales, that has lately appeared. We predict for it a sale and popularity equal to the most spacessful of modern romances.—Daily Evv. Troviller, Boston. For delicate and forcible delineation of character this work is hardly excelled .- Boston Journal. The Lamplighter will shed many a ray around fire-sides and in hearths where now it may be there is much of darkness and despair.—Daily Bee, Boston.

The life of Little Gerty, as portrayed in the Lamp-lighter, is as deeply affecting as the best sketches of Dickens. Few persons having commenced this work will be willing to put it saide until they have gore through. The author, whoever she may be, has no reason to withhold her name, as the book would do credit to any writer—Daily Advertises, Boston. The Lamplighter teaches important truths, which cannot be too frequently impressed upon the minds of all; and no one can study its instructive and fascinating pages, without being made better by its kindly induences. Its author has evidently a highly cultivated and refined, as well as an original and imagination wind and writer with the area the design.

tivated and refined, as well as an original and imaginative mind, and writes with the ease, the classical correctness of diction, and that choice selection of terms, which indicate the good English scholar.
